With the purpose of doing something for our country the members of GAFBU arranged this two day (June 10th and June 11th) long event. We set up booth in the BU Cafeteria and collected 480 votes for Cox's Bazar to make it as one of the 7 natural wonders of the world. We also did power point presentation to aware the students and faculties of BRAC so that they give more votes.

BUFC
INTROview: the branded interview session of FC took place where the enthusiastic freshers were interviewed. Was more of introduction by the freshers. There were fun sessions also which (and of course) the freshers enjoyed a lot.

Movie show with Drishtipat
It was an excellent movie show which received response more than expected. "The Promised Land" which highlighted the misery and problems that biharis have to face in BD. In the end of the show, we had a person from their society to answer several questions from the audiences.

Kothopokothon - tea with Mostofa Sarwar Faruki
It was a very very VERY memorable evening. Loads of audiences, 3 great personalities and a great event, what can be better! Mr. Faruki, Mr. Hasan and Mr. Rasel were present in this very special event. Hilarious and exciting, these people really made the evening a memorable one. They shared many hilarious and eventful moments of their life and carrier. There was a student comedy show also and the evening was ended by a song sung by Mr. Hasan. We had special guests from Dhaka University Film Society, NSU and Creative Bangladesh.

MONON

Boshipuk Trip (6th of June 2008)
On the 6th of June MONON visited a Rehabilitation Centre for Children and the Elderly named 'Boshipuk' in Gazipur. All the members reached the facility at 10:45 am and were joined by some faculty members of different department of BRAC University.

The Rehabilitation Centre is being run as a private concern of the Givensy Group of Industries founded by the Chairman Khotib Abdul Zahid Mukul. The Centre for the elderly is currently home to 122 men and 98 women and it was the aim to give these people a day that would be etched in their memory and ours forever.
Upon arrival, the participants were divided in to groups of girls and boys and they took gifts for each of the residents to their dorms. At 11:00 am dry food such as peetha, papor were arranged for the residents of the rehabilitation centre. While they handed out the simple gifts and food, they saw in their eyes the innocent remnants of some long forgone youth, the spirit rekindled and reunited in joy.
The students interacted with the men and women of the center from 11:30am to 12:30pm. They had been warned previously not to ask any private questions, however they shared their experiences with the students freely. Maybe the students reminded them of some far-away family, grandchild, son or daughter, a loss, which reflected in their eyes. They in turn reminded our students of their own grandparents and sometimes the tears came freely. On that day, they were their family; they sat, feasted and laughed together. One of the ladies showed her sarees in pride, while others raised their hands in prayer for well being of the students. At 12:30pm Masuma Khatun Lipa, Director of Boshipuk, gave suggestions and lectured the students about the theme. The students made a promise to her, that no matter how good the facility, none of the relatives would ever end up in Boshipuk.

After lunch they arranged a game show and prize giving ceremony for the aged people which started at 3pm and continued on till 4pm. The game show consisted of can throws, peanut-peeling competition, ring through, and coin drop in water and mini football.

The men and women participated in all the games. Some won prizes in all the games. Their enthusiastic participation was an inspiration to all of us. Pro Vice Chancellor Dr Salehuddin Ahmed who came to visit at around 4pm inspected the event and much appreciated the effort by the club members.

The cultural program followed at 4:30pm, everyone dressed in their best to attend the program. The show started with the theme song of MONON and ended by a drama based on William Shakespeare's 'The Taming of the Shrew'.

The member of Boshipuk also participated in the cultural program through songs, poetry and jokes. The highlight of the evening was when two of the children sang "Bridhasram" by Nachiketa.

By 7pm it came time to depart, although nobody wanted to leave, yet the logic suggested otherwise. And finally all of the participants reached BU campus safely. Students really enjoyed the entire event and one of them expressed their feelings in her own words:

The aged people are much braver and stronger than those half their age, otherwise, how is it that they have borne so much sadness with no complaint where we have so many objections even when our lives are filled with people who love us? No matter where it is in the world we go, we shall always carry the memory of this day with us, their laughs, their smiles, their tears, something their families haven't bothered to do, and long after they are gone, in our hearts we grant them...

"...Immortality,
There is a vision and a fire in me
I keep the memory of you and me, inside
   We don't say goodbye
With all my love for you
And what else we may do
   We don't say, goodbye"

Course offered by World Bank Institute (WBI) with GDLN

Trade Finance Tools for Export Diversification

This Course was organized by World Bank Institute (WBI) in collaboration with Global Development Learning Network (GDLN) for selected participants from May 15 to June 12, 2008 (For 5 Weeks) at BRAC University Video Conference Center. The primary objective of the course was to help trade policymakers, advisors, researchers, private operators (in agriculture, industry and services) as well as export support institutions in client developing countries to better understand possible proactive role a government can play in trade finance. This proactive role could be fulfilled in terms of assistance and support to export financing and development of efficient financial markets in order to attenuate/ameliorate the lack of trade finance in developing countries, and contribute to trade expansion and facilitation, by mitigating market failures and information asymmetries in developing countries with poor financial markets. The second objective of the course is to help provide a better understanding of trade financing instruments (e.g. Documentary Letters of Credit, Counter Trade, Factoring, Pre-Shipment and Post Shipment Financing, Buyers' and Suppliers' Credits) as well as hands-on practical exercises on Export Credit Insurance (to protect exporters and mitigating the financial impact of risks on the exporter) and Export Credit Guarantees
(to protect export financing banks from losses they may incur stemming from the provision of funds to exporters). Upon reaching the underlying objectives, developing countries may be able to face their chronic balance of payments deficits and promote growth. The countries connected by Video Conference for this session were Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Ghana, Nepal, Nigeria, Sri Lanka & Tanzania.

Institute of Educational Development

Afghanistan Educational Leadership Study Tour
The Institute of Educational Development (IED), BRAC University is presently hosting a twenty-member team from the Afghanistan Higher Education Project Educational Leadership Study Tour, funded by USAID. Seventeen participants, two translators and the Team Leader are participating in the study tour. The participants are from sixteen Institutes of Higher Education based in different provinces of Afghanistan, under the Ministry of Higher Education.

The Educational Leadership Study Tour is a four-week training programme organized by IED from June 20 - July 16, 2008 in Dhaka, Bangladesh. Dr. Monica Gomes and Ms. Leela Dahal from IED are coordinating the Study Tour, while senior leaders and faculty members from BRAC, BRACU, and government and non-government organizations are facilitating the various sessions as Resource Persons.

The main purpose of the Educational Leadership Study Tour is to enhance the leadership skills and capacities of the participants and provide models of good practices in educational leadership from case studies of Bangladeshi Government and Non-Government educational organizations and institutions and analyze how these may be applied in the context of Afghanistan to improve educational leadership.

The format of the study tour included visits to relevant organizations or meetings with leaders of organizations to find out the leadership roles and functions of these organizations, followed by reflection sessions to apply the knowledge gained in the context of Afghanistan.

In this context the participants visited and met with leaders of the Ministry of Education, Directorate of Secondary and Higher Education, BRAC, BRAC University, BRAC Education Program, National Academy of Educational Management, Bangladesh Mahila Parishad, Ain O-Shalish Kendra, Campaign for Popular Education, Dhaka Ahsania Mission, Viqarunnisa Noon School and College, and MC College, Sylhet.

The study tour also included sessions to provide participants with theoretical knowledge on leadership. Topics covered included leadership styles, overlaps between leadership and management, effective leaders, leadership and networking, Government-NGO collaboration, motivation, change management, human resource management, succession planning, gender equality and equity.

The participants will be traveling to Sylhet to visit the field programs this week. The closing ceremony will
