

JKKNIU signs MoU with CPJ-BRACU

Published : Tuesday, 14 August, 2018 at 12:00 AM

JKKNIU Correspondent

JKKNIU signs MoU with CPJ-BRACU

A Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) was signed between the Jatiya Kabi Kazi Nazrul Islam University (JKKNIU) and Centre for Peace and Justice of BRAC University (CPJ-BRACU) at the JKKNIU campus on 12 August 2018.

Through this MoU signing, the students of the universities will get chance to promote global peace and social justice through quality education, research, training and advocacy. CPJ is committed to identifying and promoting sustainable and inclusive solutions to a wide range of global concerns and issues, including fragility, conflict and violence.

This MOU will remain effective for two years from the date of signing, unless terminated or replaced by a new MOU before the end of such time.

In the presence of Prof Dr AHM Mustafizur Rahman, Vice-Chancellor of JKKNIU and Dr Samia Huq, associate professor, Zia Uddin, research associate and programme officer of the BRAC University, signed the MOU on behalf of their respective sides.

Md Wali Ullah, local facilitator of the project, said, 'CPJ of BRAC University has commissioned a project titled "Empowered Women and Peaceful Communities", which is funded by UN WOMEN Bangladesh. Under this project, CPJ will conduct comprehensive training on leadership, peace building and entrepreneurship development with female students from Jatiya Kabi Kazi Nazrul Islam University.'

During MOU signing ceremony, Prof Md Jalal Uddin, treasurer, Prof Nazrul Islam, dean of Social Science Faculty, Md Wali Ullah, lecturer of Public Administration and Governance Studies Dept, Dr Md Humayun Kabir, registrar (acting), and others teachers, officers, were also present here.