Subject: Submission of the internship on ‘Performance Appraisal Of Healthcare Pharmaceuticals Ltd’

Dear Sir,

This is a matter of great pleasure that I have been given with the opportunity of submitting the internship report on the ‘performance appraisal of Healthcare Pharmaceuticals Ltd’ This was assigned by you as a very important part of the internship program. During the report preparation period I did gain knowledge about the organization completely and could relate theories while working.

I tried hard to make this report in to a unique, authentic and credible one.In this report I did try to portray the broad Performance Appraisal of HPL&HDSL.I did this with sincerity but there were some limitations too yet I firmly believe that things I could identify will be well enough for completing the report and course.

Therefore, I would like to place this report to you for your valuable judgement and kind guidelines.

Thank you.

Sincerely yours;

Other secondary objectives are-

- To focus on performance appraisal practice in Healthcare Pharmaceuticals Ltd

- To get well known about the corporate world.

- To implement theoretical knowledge while working practically.

- To fulfill academic requirement.
1.3. Scope of the study

The main scope of the study was to gain a better reality check. This report provided me with the opportunity to know about the ‘Performance appraisal system of Healthcare Pharmaceuticals Ltd’ besides I could observe what’s happening how the tools of appraisal are being used in the organization. By studying the appraisal process of HPL&HDSL the depth of my knowledge increased with the practical uses.

1.4. Methodology of the report

We had to collect the information from different sources in order to find out the objectives of this study.

Primary data collection:

- By interacting with the peers and interviewing different HR people as per requirement.
- By observing the activities of HRD in the organization

Secondary data collection:

- From the annual report of Healthcare Pharmaceuticals Ltd.
- The employee handbook of Healthcare Pharmaceuticals Ltd & Internet sources.

1.5. Limitation

- Corporate executives usually remain very busy due to which it becomes a bit challenging to manage time from them.
- Since an intern is not a permanent employee so there are some access barriers as in confidentiality matters.
- The time we are allocated with is not well enough for a fruitful research.
- During practical implementation things changes so there creates a difference in between.
1.6. Broad and Specific Objective

Broad Objective

- To Know about the present appraisal system of Healthcare Pharmaceuticals Ltd
- To do a SWOT analysis of their working frame.

Specific Objective

- Just to examine the Performance Appraisal process of Healthcare Pharmaceuticals Ltd
- To identify whether there is any lacking’s in the appraisal process
- If there is any shortcomings in the process then provide with necessary recommendations for HPL&HDSL.
Performance Appraisal (PA) normally includes — assessing execution in light of the decisions and feelings of subordinates, peers, managers, diverse chiefs and even pros themselves (Jackson and Schuler, 2003). There are the a few techniques which are utilized to measure/check and dealt with workers' execution likewise, for instance, free paper, examination dependent on rating and positioning, and the 360-degree criticism. These strategies are basically quantifiable and not very time squandering, except for the 360-degree methodology. The 360-degree technique is utilized less for assessing worker (Kateřina, Andrea, and Gabriela, 2003).

Specialists have seen that activity fulfillment is straightforwardly related with laborer turnover, degrees of consistency, non-appearance and in a roundabout way to work execution and proficiency. (Shore, Newton et al, 1990). The association between employment fulfillment and occupation execution has been the issues of various investigations. Generally, an evaluation, execution overview or a professional success discourse is a system by which the activity execution of a worker is surveyed the extent that quality/sum/cost/time (Prasad, 2015).

Execution Evaluation oversees such issues as representatives surveying comfort, accuracy, target setting techniques and analysis frameworks. (Dobbins, Sweet and Plat-Vieno, 1990). Tending to the issue of using an Exhibition Examination, Longenekar, Sims and Gioia abridges as —the guideline concern is the what is the most ideal approach to use the assessment method to rouse and remunerate workers (1987, p 191). As a method, execution examination is seen as a key supporter of prosperous human asset the board, as it is immovably related with progressive execution (Erdogan, 2002).

The association among execution evaluation and fulfillment and work execution was both Encouraged and directed by representatives’ inherent work inspiration. The connection among performance appraisal and satisfaction and work performance was both Facilitated and moderated by employees’ intrinsic work motivation.

CHAPTER 4: INTERNSHIP AT HEALTHCARE PHARMACEUTICALS LTD.

4.1. First Month Learning

I have joined Health Care Pharmaceuticals Ltd on January 11, 2019 as an HR& Marketing intern. In the first month of my internship program I have been assigned different tasks from time to time which has helped me to know the company better, how the system works internally in the HR wing and then helps the different HR employees of this department accordingly. The first week was more of an orientation week and I was explained... elaborately the roles of an HR executive, Business developer and Diagnostic associate. In the second week, I was assigned with the task of market research on Dengue Duo the effectiveness of it and the present condition of it in the market and for doing this I had to visit the places in person to get the proper feedback and get things accordingly.

4.2. Second and Last Month Learning

In the second month of our learning period I have done both HR related work and supported the administration team with logistical work. This month I was assigned with the market research of Diabetes and Glucometer since I was assigned in a concern of HPL AT HDSL which works with different medical equipment in the market works as a local supplier of Abbott. I did learn the quotation system of product how it’s being done there I learned about the purchase order and the clearance of product through shipment and so on

I was able to complete all these tasks successfully and my work was highly valued by my supervisor, Business Developer, HR Executive, Head of diagnostic. All these somewhat has helped to know more about HPL where they keep on taking initiatives to ensure a better work place. These three months’ journey was indeed a journey of learning as I was able to witness the practice of the theories in real world and how the system actually works in a big like HPL. It is indeed no less than a challenge to maintain the human resources and keep them all intact under one roof. The whole program has been a great contribution, more of learning and training period before I enter the corporate world.

CHAPTER 5: PERFORMANCE APPRAISAL

5.1. Performance Appraisal

It is a precise assessment of employees act and promise to an association. Organizations use execution examination to give representatives input on their work and to legitimize pay additions and prizes, just as end choices. They can be executed at some random time yet in general be yearly, semi-yearly or quarterly.

Healthcare Pharmaceuticals Limited conducts performance appraisal in organized ways which includes:
The supervisors of HPL Bangladesh Ltd measure the remuneration of workers dependent on execution and balance it with their association's targets and objectives.
The supervisors assess what parts ought to be set up to improve the execution of the workers. The administrators are at risk to lead the representatives for a predominant act.

5.2. Objective of HPL’s Performance Appraisal

For using performance appraisal method within an organization the objectives are:

- To identify the difference between current performance and expected performance.
- Maintain a better relationship between supervisor and subordinate.
- To find out one's lacking’s and train for development.
- Give proper feedback to employees based on performance.
- Evaluating an employee to determine the remuneration packages & salary increment etc.
- Evaluate the potentiality of a person for advance development and improvement.

5.3. Performance Appraisal Technique

Healthcare Pharmaceuticals Limited used those tools to make the evaluation more accurate.

- Management By Objective (MBO)
- Task Oriented
- Behavior Oriented

5.4. Performance appraisal tools and techniques

Management by objectives (MBO): In this process there are both sides participates here the managers and employees sits together joint hands and set the objectives so that things can be achieved easily and don’t mess things out anyway.
Task Oriented: Well it’s something that’s being done completely focusing on the work procedure and style of the employee. The fulfillment of task is considered and then they are being judged.

Behavior Oriented: It is judged considering the behavior of an employee the way an employee priority his/her work the dedication towards the work are being considered.

5.5. Performance Appraisal System at HPL

The Human Resource Division does the Performance Appraisal in HPL and shapes things in a better way.

5.5.1. Performance Development Plan (PDP)

The performance development plan helps to set the objective of an organization. It helps in assessing the performance of the employees and also adds the skills required by the employees to cover the things they lack in that are how it works. It helps to set the tools required for the development of employee performance. It helps to improve the quality of HPL as an organization in the society and improve further with its various works and plans. In this procedure they set the target and measure performance accordingly, classifying leadership qualities and behaviors. Performance Development Plan (PDP) is used for the performance review of the directors and managers and practiced by all HPL International affiliates.

Performance appraisal of HPL is conducted half yearly along with Yearly.

- Mid Yearly Review - All supervisors/managers sit together with their associates and set the different term strategies for the development and benefit of the company. It’s documented.

- Yearly Review – This take place in December there all the directors sit together to analyze the standard of performance for the organization consistently. Additionally, evaluates the performance of the employees and how they achieved the organization's objectives. There employees are rated by managers on the basis of 1-80 points ratings then converted in 100 points.
Guidelines for utilizing and preserving the data of PDP:

- The data form might be utilized as a part of reviewing the talent procedure just to give review for employees on professional advancement and enable HPL’s top management to figure out the future needs talents of the company.

- It enables the employee to observe and record their development against their annual goals and improvement plan.

- The yearly survey segment of the form will sustain into HPL’s pay procedure as a variable for both reward and pay increments.

- To ensure the privacy of both the employers and employee during evaluation process, data security guideline is there.

The PDP has 7 sections which are given:

- Part A - Performance Plan and Objectives clearly determines the projected outcomes and furthermore complies of 5 criteria which are Specific, Measurable, Action-Oriented, Realistic and Time-Based. All these are there to guarantee that worker needs to do, by which level of caliber needed to perform the tasks. Likewise, it identifies what to do in order to surpass his or her supervisor's expectations.

  - Part B - Leadership Essentials is there to discover how job is completed to accomplish HPL's objectives.

- Part C - Periodic Review is done, several times in a year, to evaluate employee goals with their line manager. This allow them to know how they are developing themselves to achieve goals and enable time to modify if essential.

- Part D - Annual Review occurs in December. Here the line manager initially assesses every goal, observing the outcomes in Part A with B of the PDB Form, while after that analyzing entire performance and record in Part D. Pay decisions depends on the supervisor’s entire assessment of an employee's performance.

- Part E - Developmental Plan in which employees can improve their KSA’s to be more effective in their present job, and develop them for future roles. Employees use their qualities to accomplish their present objectives and plans to approach developmental necessities.

- Part F - Developmental Periodic Review occurs few times a year. It is there to audit the improvement on the developmental plan.
Part G - Developmental Yearly Review occurs at the end of the year. Here as well, it is vital to get client contribution to enable them to assess how they are progressing on their improvement. However, this survey does not affect their remuneration.

5.6. Evaluation Period

The assessment time of HPL's employees is from 01 January to 31 December. For laborers the assessment time actually takes between July- June. In February the workers set the scale or goal for appraisal framework. The evaluation is done based on a scale like– Excellent (a) High Performer (>95%) (b) Good performer (86%-95%) (c) Average Performer 51%-85%) (d) Below Average Performer (40%-50%)(e) Poor Performer (<40%)

Table 2: Performance Ratings & Guidelines for Managers
5.8. Uses Of Performance Appraisal System At HPL

- Development: The appraisal System at HPL identifies which employee needs development in their performance and it can what type of training programs do they

- Basic Reward Allocation: This is being discussed that after finishing of the work how the employee going to be rewarded as bonus or king of a benefit he/she will get accordingly.

- Motivation: The existence of organized assessment framework motivates individuals at HPL, Bangladesh. It encourages activities, builds up an awareness of other's expectations and inspire to perform better.

- Compensation: This is something that being discussed with the employee at what amount one’s going to work for.

- Communication: Assessment is a reason for a continuous communication between line manager and employee about employment related issues. Through cooperation the parties become more acquainted with each other better. HPL is giving priority on this perspective.

CHAPTER 6: FINDINGS

6.1. Findings

- They do have a detailed and structured appraisal process to be followed for their employees.
- Performance appraisal is something that needed to be followed strictly within a time frame.
- HPL encourages their employees to improve their performance by training them.
- If employee has good performance than he/she can be expatriated to better position with great facilities.
There’s a program conducted by the CEO with directional body and senior level employees sort of a review program helps a lot in talent acquisition.

The employees evaluated through PDP process like content on the grounds that for this situation, objective with some specific one on the basic negotiation with the supervisor.

CHAPTER 7: RECOMMENDATIONS

7.1. Recommendations

As an organization HPL. Ought to build up the handmade ‘. It will save time as well as money of the organization. It's better if the organization doesn’t just rely upon the supervisor for its employee performance assessment rather; there must be HR contribution for better evaluation 'in all level of employee’s performance appraisal process. This is the process where the line manager of a specific employee assesses it’s under employee's performance. Be that as it may, in this procedure may bring a possibility of partiality. Just to tackle these kinds of issue HPL can assign HR department Employees to observe the performance of employees on daily basis.

- It hardly Incorporate few things like innovation, Critical reasoning & decision-making, consistency under pressure, with the use of social responsibility, & moral contemplation.
- HPL should take a step to evaluate employee’s performance more than once a year.

Although HPL has a satisfactory evaluation process but taking into consideration the weaknesses of the current evaluation process, the following changes can be recommended in the performance evaluation system:

- A self-assessment can be done by each of the employee followed by peer-reviews. The employees will assess themselves on the basis of few grades and provide examples of their action against their rating. This will be then passed for 360-degree feedback where peers will be asked to analyses their contiguity to the projects. Only the managers and will have access to the review sheets.
The employees can be also asked to review each other. This review system must be based on few objectives:

- Sales to different customers

- Marketing by visiting with different product and promotion materials (Brochure, Sales aid, Leaflet etc.)

- Develop customers with building relation.

- Rapott with KOL’S lab concern good relation with lab concerns.

- Making the collection on due time.

Once all the results are received, it is much needed to discuss the results with all the managers and leaders rather than HR dealing with it all by themselves- Fine-tuning. These employees can be rated on few criteria based on the needed of improving skills and attitude towards work. This will help the employee to grow better and ensure better performance. The rating will be solely used to categorize the employees based on the needs of training and development sessions. If required, the senior supervisor will also be asked to review the employees’ appraisal form as per requirement that’s how it works.

When employees will be aware of the fact that, they are not only being evaluated by their line manager and their supervisor, rather by all the different interconnected teams working in a project, they will ensure equal behavior towards all the employees rather than listening to the commands of the immediate supervisors monitored by the manager.

It is the key responsibility of the HR wing to ensure that an employee possesses the following qualities if it wants the human resources to achieve the epitome of success:

- Knowledge Skill
- Leadership
- Communication
- Commitment & Loyalty
- Quality Focus
Mutual Respect

Creativity

These can be achieved only when it will be able to ensure an effectual performance evaluation process followed by gainful training and development programs.

CHAPTER 8: CONCLUSION

8.1. Conclusion

Performance Appraisal is the processes through which the associations decide the level of efficiently the employees get the job done. This happens basically with the executive employees with the mind to recognize shortcoming along with qualities and also open doors for development and aptitudes improvement.

The target of HPL is up for achieving its goal, HPL needs the development of an overall link up with each working unit’s office with neighborhood capacities. HPL. Understands the fundamental needs of placing the exact person for the deserving position. They think that those individuals could accomplish the objective and capability that well recognized by the organization. The Performance Appraisal process has a vital part with the organization. Quite number of issues with the appraisal framework is known by top level management. They do consider in the making of few improvements and also in the evaluation paper. This changes going to be followed in the upcoming years. All in all, the organization conducts an Employee Satisfaction survey to enrich their business perspective by satisfying their employees alongside which are good indeed.
