

Vice Chancellor of Brac University Prof Ainun Nishat inaugurates the first-ever Radio Frequency Identification (RFID) System in Ayesha Abed Library on Sunday. bu photo

Brac University introduces RFID system

→Metro Desk

BRAC University introduced the first-ever Radio Frequency Identification (RFID) System in Ayesha Abed Library on Sunday.

Vice Chancellor of the university Prof Ainun Nishat inaugurated the RFID system. Hasina Afroz, librarian of Brac University, gave a briefing on the use of the new system.

Librarians from different universities and institutes, and students of the university were present on the occasion, says a press release.