

noticeboard

Thursday, 18 October 2012

Brac University Club Fair

Brac University's Club Fair of Fall 2012 was a day filled with colours and joy. The fair titled 'Mela', was a fun day for the university students and faculties alike as they found their campus decorated with the traditional "Gamcha", while vendors sold candy floss and bangles. The clubs of BRAC University had set up sign up booths, each decorated differently. In the morning, the VC, Professor Ainun Nishat, Pro-VC Dr. Md. Golam Samdani Fakir, Registrar Ishfaq Ilahi Choudhury, and Director of Student Affairs, Zainab F Ali visited the booths and were given presentations about the activities of each club. The day also included 'less-serious' activities such as students everywhere dancing, singing, cheering, signing up in different clubs as "dhol" played in the background. The environment of the cafeteria and indoor games room of Brac University was filled with nostalgic childhood memories. BRAC University Cultural Club organized a show at the end of the day, which was inaugurated with a brilliant performance from the dance crew named FACELESS. It was followed by another sizzling dance performed by members of the BRAC University Drama and Theatre forum (Dtf). Once the dance section concluded, BRAC University Cultural Club (BUCuC) performed various songs. The show started with a composition of flute and hard rock music that enthralled the audience. Famous songs such as "rajahin rajje", watch over you, with or without you and a blues fusion of the Tagore classic "Noyon o Tomare" were played. One of the most remarkable performances was of the song "Deep Nebhar Agey". Once the songs were over, an emotional atmosphere lingered in the show as the club was handed over to the new president and vice presidents of BUCuC. However, the sentimental moment was short lived once the comic drama by BRACU Dtf was acted out. Though full of humor, the motivational drama conveyed the moral that everyone is a hero in their own ways. The club fair was wonderfully organised by BRAC University Heritage Forum and fabulously concluded by the entertainment clubs of BRACU.