Sir Abed meets masters students from BRAC University, IUB

City Desk

Sir Fazle Hasan Abed, BRAC founder chairperson, met a group of masters students of the Development Studies of BRAC University (BracU) and Independent University (IUB).

These students are presently attending courses on micro finance, NGOs and social entrepreneurship.

Sir Abed shared his experiences in developing social enterprises, micro finance and poverty alleviation in Bangladesh and other developing countries.

The meeting was coordinated by Dr Salehuddin Ahmed, course teacher in BracU and IUB.
