4.5.1 Introduction:

Recruitment is the process of identifying organizations needs screening and selecting to eligible personnel for specific job. Recruitment and selection process refers to the chain and sequence of activities that refers to recruitment and selection of employable candidates and job seekers for an organization. Each and every organization has some well-defined employment and recruitment policies and hiring procedures.

CP Bangladesh Co., Ltd. believes that employees are the most valuable resource that is truly a key to the company’s success. In other words, employees are views as the “Human Capital” which needs to be continuously invested for creating value-added to company and their own.

4.5.2 Recruitment Process:
4.5.3 Receiving Manpower Requisition Form:

Step-1. At first, vacancy created in concerned business department. There are two types of vacancy:

i) Replacement

ii) New position

If vacancy is against replacement, managers must mention previous employee’s name and resigning date. If the vacancy is against new position, then managers must show the judgment. This judgment is about why new position is raised.

Step-2. Business units must be prepare employee requisition paper.

Step-3. Company budget is being checked by the Business units for startup new requisitions and recruitment process.

Step-4. Approval with the HR department is needed. If the requirement is over the desired budget then approval from the president is needed.

Step-5. After approval of the manpower requisition Human Resource Sourcing and Selection Department (HRSS) starts the Recruitment and selection Process.
4.5.4 Screening and Selection Process of CPB:

1. Receive approval of manpower requisition from concerned division
2. Precede advertisement against vacant position
3. Collect and scrutinize resumes in connection with concerned division
4. Prepare short list and candidate summary according to desired requirement
5. Send SMS and call them to invite for preliminary interview (written/viva/practical test)
6. Prepare short list for the final interview
7. Select the desire candidates by interview board
8. Provide joining documents to candidates
9. Check necessary papers like certificate, past employment history, employment bond etc
10. Provide appointment letter
4.5.5 Preliminary Interview Process:

1. Process of Attract Applicants and Collecting Resumes:
    After approval of requisition, Human resource division will start their recruitment tasks. There are two sources for collecting resumes. These are:

a) Internal Sources: Through internal sources CPB collects resumes. Internal sources help HR division minimize the cost. There are some sources that are used to utilize internal resources. These are:

   i. Employee Referrals: CPB has vast number of employees. Employee referrals are great and strong sources for CPB for gathering resumes during vacancies. Here employee from CPB will sign on applicant’s resume and employee will contact with officer of HRSS team. They will write it down. Employees can also refer about internee.

   ii. Transfer and Promotion: HR Division follows transfer and promotion system of employees if vacant position is immediately important.

b) External sources: Through External sources, CPB gathers huge and good number of applicants. Those sources are as follows:

   i. Online Advertisement: HRSS department of CPB contact with bdjobs.com to post the job circular. Here, they advertise basically about entry level, mid level job but sometimes for high level job. The job responsibilities are clearly mentioned in details in the job description.

   ii. Job Fair: The organization participates every year in the career fair organized by universities. Students from Different educational background provide their resume and company save the resume for future job opportunities.

   iii. Campus recruitment: every year CPB go out for campus recruitment invited by various re-known universities all over in BD. Here eligible and interested candidates put their resumes. They collect those CV and keep filing according to the merits of students.

   iv. Interns: Interns are one of the external sources. HRSS division collect interns’ resume from different educational institutions and universities. Sometimes students send their resumes to HR division.

   v. CV Bank: HR division of the CPB always maintains CV bank both hard copy and soft copy. In CV bank, there are two parts. First one is hard copy of CV’s. Applicants send their CVs. Through post. Those are kept in specific CV bank file. Second one is some of the resumes are send in their carrier service mail. Those are recorded in the special software called ECV bank in computer about their details.
2. Sort out Applicants:
After collecting resumes, HRSS division of CPB starts its resume shorting process. Resumes are justifying strictly by the requirements based on the job. HRSS department selects preferred standard resumes based on educational requirements, experience, age, reputed universities, locations etc.

3. Preparing candidates profile summary:
After shorting resumes HRSS department prepares candidate summary of selected candidates which is basically a summary of shorted resumes. This candidate’s profile summary contains applicants’ name, last education, educational institution, current employment position, previous organization, total year of experience, salary expectations. This will help interviewer to understand applicants in a moment.

4. Make Call List and Informing Candidates:
Next stage of selection process is to inform applicants for attending exam. For this, HRSS division makes call list. This call list includes applicants’ name, current position, previous organization, education, location, mobile number and remarks. HRSS division at first send them text message to inform them about the job position, date of examination, company location and contact number so that applicants can communicate with them for further information. After sending sms they call each and every applicants to let them reminder about the exam.

5. Preparing Attendance Sheet:
Before examination, candidates attendance sheet and application form are prepared by HRSS department. This attendance sheet includes applicants’ name, address, mobile number and signature box. So that when candidates will come, they will sign there. Candidates also fill up the application form.

6. Written, Practical and viva Test:

   i. Written Test:
   For selecting final employee, HR division arranges some examinations where candidates will give test. In written test, applicants must have to get 30 percent number. Written exam is divided on some categories. There are question about English, Math, General knowledge, analytical problems and job related questions. Then HRSS division checks the exam paper and attaches with resumes.

   ii. Computer Test and English language Test:
   After qualifying written examination practical test is required for candidates. They must attend and pass the practical tests. Candidates are given some MS Excel problems and they have to solution that. Candidates also have to attend English language test. They must have to pass the computer test and English language test to qualify for the final interview.
iii. Viva Test:

After passing written exam and computer test, HR Division organizes viva interview. This viva interview board consists of two types of people. Some are from HRSS Division, and from concerned department. Before starting interview, Recruitment and Talent Manager will give some overview about the vacant job and question. Then he provides candidates profile summary, particular job advertisement and resumes who pass in written exam. In viva, interviewer asks about applicants’ study and job related questions. They want to know about job responsibilities from candidates and try to judge them whether they can perform his duties effectively and efficiently or not. Sometimes Interviewers give some situation to know that how candidates will response in given situation. They also ask candidates about their expected salary. If applicants have job experience, they also ask about job condition and reason of leaving that organization. Interviewers basically evaluate some aspects from candidates. Those aspects are:

- Job understanding /responsibilities
- Communication skill
- Intelligence & smartness
- Educational knowledge
- Leadership ability
- Decision making capabilities
- Judgment abilities
- Technical skill

4.5.6 Final Interview:

1. Selection & Final Call to the Selected Candidates:

After preliminary interview HRSS department prepare the final result. They select additional two or three applicants for final interview. HR division ensures that first choice candidate will attended their organization if first choice does not expect their condition, HR division will go for second best or third best choice. Then HR division calls finally selected candidates to invite for the final interview with the Head of HR, President and the Vice Chairman on fixed date to bring necessaries papers.

Recruitment and selection process is the most important part for an organization and concerned department. It’s a formal process starts from created vacancy to appoints new joiner. In the meantime lots of formal approval, examinations and evaluations of employees are done and finally ends by selecting new joiner. Recruitment and selection process is all about of following formal policy and procedures. C.P.Bangladesh Co.,Ltd strictly follow their structured rules and regulations to select the best employee for the organization.
CHAPTER-5
FINDINGS AND ANALYSIS
5.1 Findings and Analysis:

During my internship program I have participant in various practices of HRSS Department for recruitment and selection process. I have observed the overall proceedings and come up with different findings and analysis. Those are as follows:

a) Strength:

- Job Satisfaction: Job satisfaction is very important factor for an employee. In CPB due to their work environment, friendly communication of each dpt. salary structure, compensation and benefits, friendly management employee relationship creates job satisfaction among employees. They always be dedicated on the company.

- High quality of Product: CPB’s main target is to provide high quality products to their customer. They places utmost importance to product quality that meets standards serves verity needs, tasty and hygienic food and most important is safe for consumption.

- Improvement of Production Process: CPB is committed to continuous improvement in production process to meet internationally recognized standards certified by Good Manufacturing Practices (GMP) a production process system, ISO 9002 for production and management system.

- Brand Name: CPB is a well known Multinational organization consist of a high brand value with better environment where People are always be interested to work in a company like CPB.

- Safety, Healthy & Environment: CPB is highly concern about managing Occupational Safety and Health for every employees and worker. They are certified by Hazard analysis and critical control points (HACCP) for Food safety system, EST/TH. Achieve OSHAS 18000 (Occupational safety & health administration Management system) SO 18001 for workers safety system

- Fair Recruitment Policy & Procedure: The recruitment rules and regulations are strictly followed by the HRSS team during screening and selection process. No prejudice is allowed here. Employees are being selected with fair evaluations.
b) Weakness:

- Difficult to find out Right Candidates through Online Base Advertisement: Online advertisement is one of the most useable tools to attract candidates for different job vacancies. But online advertisement takes long time to find out proper candidate for the position. It is very expensive way and sometime become unsuccessful to find out the right employee.

- Lack of skilled manpower: To find out skilled employee is a great challenge for CPB to survive in today’s business. Because the number of agro-based companies are increasing in Bangladesh. So as a new joiner skilled manpower is always preferable for those companies also. Most of the time it is very difficult to find out skilled manpower because lack of higher educational qualifications, lack of corporate experience, lack of knowledge, lack of handle the situation properly, lack of intelligence etc.

- Frequency of Labor turnover: CPB has a high employee turnover problem. It is found that employees left job after being well trained and gathering some experience if they got better job opportunities. As a result company are losing trained and skilled manpower and have to prepare again the recruitment process for that post.

- Big no of applications against few no. of vacancy But most of them are non-qualified: There are big no of job applications against one position but most of them are non qualified and not appropriate for the post. So it is very difficult to screening and selection process to find out right candidates from the huge number of applications.

- Floor space is limited: Floor space is limited in C.P.Bangladesh Co.,Ltd. for taking written examination for a big no of employees.

c) Opportunities:

- C.P Bangladesh Co.,Ltd has the policy of Diversity & Inclusion (D&I) to "Combining the Divergence of Employees": The company has policy of diversity because there are lots of employees have different backgrounds in terms of age, culture, experiences, ideas, and practices. The company is creating organizational environment so that these diversities would be respected and appreciated by the company, employees, and everyone

- Discrimination Free: The organization provides equal employment opportunity for both male and female candidates. Females are performing equal work and paid equally. There are no age discrimination also. Company always provides positive action targets for women and minorities. So qualified women are always encourage to apply and create a discrimination free workplace.
Promoting programs for employee developments: The company have the ‘Gateway to Success’ program to continuously train and develop employees; this includes their new-generation management; future leader, global executives including their employees in the production line. This is to promote and support systematic sustainable growth of the company.

Health consciousness: People are getting more health conscious and concerned about food safety today. Demand of nutrition’s and hygienic food is increasing. C.P.Bangladesh Co., Ltd always gives more importance to valuable customers and adopted best methods to ensure hygienic, healthy and food safety than its competitors which will result a great opportunity for the company.

Product diversification: C.P Bangladesh Co., Ltd is relatively diversifying its business. The company is enhancing its business all over Bangladesh. People will be able to know more about their business and brand image will increase day by day. People will be more interested to work with them & apply for vacant position. There are lots of opportunities for employment.

Opportunities for both public and private universities Students: For large operation C.P.Bangladesh Co.,Ltd provides opportunities for both well known public and private universities students for employment based on job requirements. The company believe to hire eligible candidate’s selection from all over the country so that unemployment can be reduced and students can build up their career.

d) Threats:

Competitor: There are already lots of strong competitors of C.P Bangladesh Co., Ltd. Those competing organizations are also willing to hire best employees and skilled manpower as CPB wants. So there is a chance to loose skilled manpower for CPB.

Political Problem: Political conflict is a serious problem for running the business industry. Due to political unrest economical condition became weaker for the organization. As a result they couldn’t hire employees as they need.

Advertisement only on Online base: C.P.Bangladesh Co.,Ltd do not publish recruitment advertisement on own website and newspaper. But always online job circular is not an appropriate way to find out proper candidates. So lots of eligible candidates are unaware about the vacancies and could not apply.

Lack of Marketing: There are lack of research and development and lack of marketing process of C.P.Bangladesh Co.,Ltd. People are not getting full info about the company and business units.
5.2 Findings from Analysis:

1. C.P. Bangladesh Co., Ltd has a well-structured human resource management team where HR department plays the key responsibility for building a group of effective and efficient work force for the organizations development.

2. The company is providing a prearrange salary structure that indicates to its competitors that the company is using its manpower in a cost efficient way.

3. President is the sole authority to approve finally for any business or functional decision. After receiving approval from the president, HR Division starts all their functioning as per method.

4. Basically the personnel manager is responsible for manpower planning, but before taking any decision he consults with line managers.

5. There are lots of training program which starts from its orientation program for whole day with various sessions and examinations.

6. CPB Employment policies based on merit and fitness of candidates and free from gender discrimination and age limit.

7. There are friendly and helpful relationship among the employees.

8. Employee and boss relations are good.

9. The company always tries to maintain good working environment, health & safety procedure which is certified internationally.

10. They have to engage technologically sound people for their future project.

11. From the observation under it has seen that C. P. Bangladesh Co., Ltd. fails to fulfill some requirements like transport, accommodation facility for all workers.
CHAPTER-6
RECOMMENDATIONS AND CONCLUSIONS
6.1 Recommendations:

After completing internship program, I have gathered some practical knowledge about the Human Resource practices in C.P. Bangladesh Co., Ltd. I have come up with some recommendations which will be helpful for the organizations future improvement.

1. C.P.Bangladesh Co., Ltd. should be focus more on employee evaluation carefully before appointing employee. HR departments and respected department should be judge and analyze more on employees expectations, their willingness, interest of the job, working knowledge and capability, respect and loyalty on organization etc during viva interview.

2. CPB should increase their salary range. Most of the workers switch job because they are not satisfied with their basic pay though there has been a yearly increment in their overall pay and wage is comparatively less than its other competitors. CPB should be satisfy its employees so that employees can always be motivated and loyal of the company and reduce absenteeism.

3. CPB can post recruitment advertisement on their website. So that interested applicants can get proper information to visit their website and apply directly in the company website. They can also post advertisement on newspapers and minimize cost.

4. CPB should increase their marketing strategy. Because most of the people doesn’t know about their business. The company can invest more on advertising through TV channels, billboard, internet, magazines etc. To build up better brand image to public and attract talented people to join their group.

5. While recruiting the employees, C.P. Bangladesh Co., Ltd. management needs to think and give special attentions to certain things about the employees that who are in the positions they are just suitable for that position or not, if not then employees will always be difficult to motivate, and may never produce the quality of work and productivity as the management wants. CPB should start training its managers and officers on better interviewing.

6. They should improve compensation system and also provide other facilities like transport, food facilities, canteen facilities etc.

7. They should maintain proper job security of employees. They should introduce provident fund and regularity of promotion system.

8. They should be more conscious about employee screening and selection process. Company should increase recruitment and selection team member. For better selection line managers or section managers can be join during viva exam to properly evaluate the right candidates.
9. The company can engage in benchmarking process with other competitors and can adopt the best practices to continuous improvement of recruitment and Selection process and for improving internal activities for better management of the organization.

10. CPB should make the routine jobs more interesting and more pleasant by communicating to people and accomplish them for important contribution they make the company can introduce reward system for employee’s valuable contribution and should motivate them. If the routine job is not interesting employee will feel bore and productivity will decrease.

6.2 Conclusions:

C.P.Bangladesh Co.,Ltd is the leading multinational company in agro- business field in Bangladesh. The company is developing business day by day in this sector. CPB has adapted expansion policy all over the country by providing better quality product to customer satisfaction according to their demand and choices.

Human Resources are the most important factor which requires continuous development as well as adding value to the company. Human Resource Division at C.P.Bangladesh Co., Ltd is enormous and elaborative which compromises the overall management process. The company always give preference to employees and constantly educate, teach, challenge & strengthen the capabilities and potentials. This is to support employees professional skills, ethical behaviors, and also self and social responsibilities. Strong recruitment and selection process and teamwork is the secrets of CPB success.

From my internship I can say that I have learnt practical knowledge of HR practices. I am very satisfied with working with the Human Resource Division. I believe my Internship experience will help me in build up my future career successfully.
