

News Room

Training on Koha at BRAC University

A five day training on Free and Open Source Software, Koha was organized by BRAC University Ayesha Abed Library on May 8-12, 2011. It was a customized training specially designed for the Integrated Library System (ILS) implementation team of Khulna University of Engineering and Technology (KUET).

This five day training programme was conducted by Dr Munit Khan, Professor of Computer Science and Engineering Department and library team of BRACU followed by practical session in which participants gained knowledge on installation, configuration and customization of Koha.

At the closing session of the training, Professor Ainun Nishat, Vice Chancellor, BRAC University distributed certificates to participants. Dr Md Golam Samdani Fakir, Pro-Vice Chancellor and Ishfaq Ilahi Choudhury, Registrar of BRAC University were also present at the programme.

Professor Ainun Nishat distributing certificates to the participants.
courtesy: BRACU