

Aga Khan School holds award and graduation ceremony

Students of Aga Khan School at the award and graduation ceremony Courtesy

This year, Aga Khan Education Services, Bangladesh, has also completed 30 years of service in Bangladesh

The Aga Khan School Dhaka hosted its 2017-18 award and graduation ceremony at a city hotel recently.

A total of 171 students received awards and certificates in different categories, including “Academic,” “Principled,” “Most Improved,” “CAS Outstanding,” and “Sportsmanship” awards.

Prof Saad Andaleeb, vice-chancellor of Brac University, graced the occasion as chief guest.

Thirteen school staff members were also awarded for their long service to the school.

This year, Aga Khan Education Services, Bangladesh, has also completed 30 years of service in Bangladesh.