BRAC University organises moot court competition

The School of Law (SoL) of BRAC University for the first time organised a nationwide inter-university moot court competition at its Mohakhali campus auditorium on 25-26 Jan 2019.

A team from the London College of Legal Studies (South) became wine while one team from Eastern University became runner up.

The other contested teams were from East West University, Daffodil International University, American International University-Bangladesh, Leading University and Southeast University.

The panel of judges in the final round comprised Prof Dr Saira Rahman Khan of the SoL and Justice Syed Refaat Ahmed of High Court Division and Senior Advocate AF Hassan Ariff of the SC.

The quarter final round comprised Associate Prof Dr Md Rizwanul Islam of North South University's law department, Assistant Prof Md Mostafa Hosain of the SoL, ABM Imdadul Haque Khan, chairperson of Eastern University's law faculty, and Advocate Syed Afzal Hasan Uddin, managing partner of the Syed Ishtiaq Ahmed and Associates.
