

The Daily Star

12:00 AM, May 24, 2018

BRACU hosts Anti-Bullying Awareness Campaign Week

BRAC University (BRACU) organised an “Anti-Bullying Awareness Campaign Week” from May 13-17, 2018 at their Mohakhali campus. The campaign was held with the message of “Respecting Each Other for Who We Are”.

The BRAC Institute of Languages (BIL), Office of Co-Curricular Activities (OCA), and the Counselling Unit jointly organised the programme. The campaign was inaugurated by Prof. Syed Saad Andaleeb PhD, VC, BRACU.

Prof. Mehtab Khanam, Adviser, Counselling Unit and Chairperson, Department of Educational and Counselling Psychology, University of Dhaka, said that students should respond to bullying with a strong and bold body language, attitude, and confidence.

Students shared their experiences and experts from different sectors of mental and public health and legal aid also took part in the discussions. Video presentations were also made on victims of bullying in which academics and personalities shared their message on creating awareness.

Fazle Hasan Abed, KCMG, Founder and Chairperson of BRAC and Chairperson of the BRACU Board of Trustees; Professor Emeritus Anisuzzaman, PhD, BOT member, BRACU; Rokia Afzal Rahman, BOT member, BRACU; Sheepa Hafiza, Executive Director, Ain o Salish Kendra; and Sara Zaker, actor, business entrepreneur and social activist were also present among distinguished guests.