

On Monday, July 23, BRAC University hosted a symposium titled 'Gender and Public Space' jointly organised by department of architecture and the Centre for Inclusive Architecture and Urbanism at their premises.

On Thursday, July 19, Independent University Bangladesh opened curtain for a four-day international rating chess tournament at their premises as part of their anniversary celebration.

On Saturday, July 21, Notre Dame University Bangladesh's English Club organised a day-long workshop on Creative Writing and Storytelling at their premises.

On Thursday, July 26, Southeast University organised a seminar on 'Ethics in teaching and Research' at their premises.

On Thursday, July 26, University of Liberal Arts Bangladesh hosted a public lecture titled "Kazi Nazrul Islam, World Literature, and Internationalism" at their Dhanmondi campus.
— Nasir Nice

On Friday, July 27, Dally Prothom Alo's supplement section Kishor Alo hosted a seminar with members consisting of teenager film enthusiasts with the team of Dhaka International Mobile Film Festival at their Dhaka office.