2nd International Conference on Business at BracU

Existing Bangladesh's stakeholders' preparedness in industry 4.0 will shape how they are remembered by future generations, said Anis Ud Dowla, chairman of ACI Group, on Friday.

The scale of tech jobs will be overwhelming having economical, political and societal impacts, while many traditional jobs will give way to those suited to the day, he said during a keynote presentation at a 2nd International Conference on Business and Management 2019 (ICBM).

Brac University's (BracU) Brac Business School (BBS) organised the three-daylong event bearing the theme "Industry Focused Global Research Trends in Business and Management" at The Westin Dhaka.

Addressing as a special guest, BracU Vice-Chancellor Prof Dr Vincent Chang said the conference was useful platform for sharing ideas and pairing current dynamics for it was an era of economic transformation.

BracU committed to forming a global portfolio, he said, urging the conference's foreign participants to enjoy Bangladesh, citing that it was one of the dynamic and hospitable countries.

The conference included nine invited and eight industry's prominent academicians and industry practitioners.

Four keynote presentations and 24 parallel sessions connecting about 250 participants, including over 40 delegates from Taiwan, Malaysia, Indonesia, Singapore, Thailand, Nigeria, India, Sweden and Canada were took part at the event.
