Ban Ki-moon meets BracU Vice-Chancellor

During recent visit to Bangladesh, former UN Secretary General Ban Ki-moon invited Brac University President and Vice-Chancellor Vincent Chang to a breakfast meeting. They discussed global citizenship, and opportunities for collaboration between Brac University (BracU) and the Ban Ki-moon Centre for global citizens. The one-on-one meeting also offered a warm setting and a unique opportunity for the two friends to reflect on their personal and professional journeys.

President Chang invited Ban Ki-moon, who is currently the Chairman of the Global Commission on Adaptation, to visit BracU and energize students to participate further in the global arena. Based in Vienna, the Ban Ki-moon Centre for global citizens was jointly founded by the former UN Secretary General and Heinz Fischer, the Austrian President from 2004-2016, and focuses on empowering youth and women.

Ban Ki-moon was in Dhaka to attend the Global Commission on Adaptation meeting, which was inaugurated by Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina, and attended by dignitaries from around the world.
