Centre for Peace and Justice of Brac University (CPJ, BracU) joined the two-day long Sampreeti Utshab (harmony festival) held in Dhaka.

Manusher Jonno Foundation (MJF) organised the festival which marked the closing of the year-long “SAMPREETI” project at Bangabandhu International Conference Center (BICC) with an aim to engage youths in peace campaigns and keep them away from militancy.

CPJ joined this festival and showcased at the festival through its various activities materials.

State Minister for Youth and Sports Zahid Ahsan Russel was present in the programme as the chief guest while deputy director of MJF Shaheen Anam was in the chair.

On the second day of the festival president of the parliamentary permanent committee on the ministry of home affairs Shamsul Hoque Tuku MP, Dhaka University professor Kazi Mariful Islam and chief executive officer of Ekushey Television Monjurul Ahsan Bulbul was present as special guest.

Different 45 stalls from around 40 institutions including various universities, development agencies and the media participated in the festival.
