

The Independent

Saturday, July 19, 2008

BracU opens language centre

STAFF REPORTER

BRAC University (BracU) has recently founded Centre for Languages (CFL), says a press release.

Along with Bangla, it will be offering a number of general and basic courses in Spanish, French, Chinese, Russian and other foreign languages. The launching programme of the centre was held yesterday at BRAC Centre Inn, Mohakhali, in the city.

Prof Nazrul Islam, Chairman, University Grants Commission, Bangladesh, was the chief guest on the occasion. Dr Salehuddin Ahmed, Pro-Vice Chancellor of BracU, chaired the ceremony.

Among others, Mahmood Hasan, Registrar, BracU, Prof Iftekhar Ghani Chowdhury, Dean BRAC Business School, chairpersons of different departments, directors of BRAC and other renowned academics were present on the occasion.