

BRAC University launches CfL

১৯ জু

BRAC University Thursday launched a centre for languages (CfL) at a simple ceremony, reports BSS.

Along with Bangla, it will be offering a number of general and basic courses in Spanish, French, Chinese, Russian and other foreign languages.

The launching programme of the centre was held at BRAC Centre Inn.

Prof. Nazrul Islam, Chairman, University Grants Commission of Bangladesh, was the chief guest on the occasion while Dr Salehuddin Ahmed, Pro-Vice Chancellor of the university presided.

Among others, Mahmood Hasan, Registrar, Prof Iftekhhar Ghani Chowdhury, Dean BRAC Business School, chairperson of different departments, distinguished directors of BRAC and other noted academics were present.

In 2005, CfL, previously known as English Language Programme, was created to improve the English language skills of the BRAC University students.

The goal of CTL has been to assist students in developing their language skills, which enable them to succeed not only in their post-graduate studies but also their forthcoming professional lives.
