

BRACU to give Duke of Edinburgh's Awards

Staff Correspondent | Published: 01:33, Jan 29, 2020

BRAC University vice-chancellor Vincent Chang and brigadier general (retd) Kaiser Ahmed, National Director of The Duke of Edinburgh's Award Foundation Bangladesh, shake hands after signing the deal on operating the international award programme at the university on Tuesday. — Press release

BRAC University struck a deal with The Duke of Edinburgh's Award Foundation to run The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award programme for BRACU students.

BRAC University vice-chancellor Vincent Chang and brigadier general (retd) Kaiser Ahmed, National Director of The Duke of Edinburgh's Award Foundation Bangladesh, signed for own organisations on Tuesday, says a press release.

The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award is an internationally recognised award which opens an opportunity to the youth aged from 14 to 24 to discover their hidden abilities and to gain a special sense of satisfaction and achievement.

Duke of Edinburgh's Award Foundation Bangladesh Board of Trustees member and executive committee chairman Rizwan Bin Farouq, Student Experience and Alumni Affairs director Abdullah R Chowdhury, Karla A Fraser, Irene Sommer and others were present on the occasion.