

Linking Young Minds Together

Volume 5 | Issue 36 | September 18, 2011 |

News Room

Akbar Ali Khan joins BRAC Business School

Distinguished Economist, former Finance and Cabinet Secretary Dr Akbar Ali Khan joined BRAC Business School on September 11, 2011 as Professor.

Dr Khan will be teaching business environment, business ethics and culture as well as drive entrepreneurship, corporate social responsibility and corporate governance related research programmes at BRAC Business School.

A man of great personality, Dr Akbar Ali Khan carries a distinguished background with him including a PhD in Economics from Queens University, Canada and has authored many publications in support of his interest and commitment.