

DHAKA Thursday 16 February 2012 04 Falgun 1418 BS 23 Rabiul Awal 1433 HIJRI

Books on education launched at BRACU

Professor Ainun Nishat, Vice-chancellor of BRACU, presided.

BRAC University (BRACU) organised a launching ceremony of two publications on education in Bangladesh on its Mohakhali campus on Wednesday.

Professor Dr AK Azad Chowdhury, Chairman, University Grants Commission (UGC), was present as chief guest at the ceremony while

The books are titled 'Education and National Development' and 'Education in Bangladesh'. A compilation of scholarly work, they were edited by Dr Manzoor Ahmed, Adviser, Institute of Educational Development, BRACU, and co-edited by Syed Saad Andalib and Halima Rahman.

The ceremony was followed by a roundtable attended by distinguished academics and education leaders who focused on the trend and quality of education in Bangladesh and beyond.