

Tuesday, March 13, 2012

BRAC University Library offers SMS Service:

The Ayesha Abed Library at BRAC University has extended its services to users once again by offering an SMS alert option, along with the usual email notices. SMS notices give more timely reminders of books due soon, overdue notices, hold-pick notices, etc. Users who sign up for the SMS service will receive all library notices via text messages. There is no extra charge for library members of BRACU to receive these messages.