Seminar on career prospects in banking

BRAC University MBA Forum recently organised a seminar on “Career Prospects in Banking” at the university auditorium. BRAC Business School MBA programme coordinator Rezaur Razzak presided over the opening ceremony of the seminar.

In order to give the students a clear idea about a career in banking, distinguished human resource professionals from different banks were present on the seminar. Among the panellists present were Alkona K. Chowdhury, Executive Vice President and Head of HR, IFIC Bank Ltd, Md. Iftekhar Hossain, Head of HR, Prime Bank Ltd, Mujib Siddiqui, Head of HR, Dhaka Bank Ltd and Abdullah Harun Imam, Head of Recruitment, BRAC Bank Ltd.

The speakers discussed various aspects in the areas of recruitment, development, employee motivation, performance appraisal processes in banking environment and some of the latest developments like green banking, role of technology etc.

Moreover, they discussed the qualities and competencies they look for while recruiting the best applicants. The panel discussion was moderated by Professor Mamun Rashid, Director at BRAC Business School.

A large number of students and faculties from MBA, EMBA, BBA and other departments of BRAC University were present in the seminar.

It was wrapped up with a lively question and answer session moderated by Md. Tamzidul Islam, Lecturer, BRAC Business School.
