Fuad Hassan Mallick was appointed pro-vice chancellor of BRAC University on Wednesday for the next four-year term.

Prior to his joining, Fuad had been working as professor and head of the department of architecture at the same university.

He conducted pioneering researches on thermal comfort in Bangladesh. A number of his publications were published in national and international journals.

Fuad is the youngest son of Azizur Rahman Mallick, a finance minister in Sheikh Mujib's cabinet and also former vice chancellor of Chittagong University.
