

Campus Corner

Wednesday, 03 April 2013, Author / Source: INDEPENDENT NEWS/agency

Seminar held at BRAC

DHAKA, APR 2: BRAC Business School hosted a seminar on Career Prospects in Supply Chain Management at the BRAC University (BRACU) auditorium on Saturday, says a press release. The seminar was supported by Bangladesh Supply Chain Council (BSCC) and organised by BRACU Entrepreneurship Development Forum.

The seminar started with the welcome speech delivered by Rezaul Razzak, Acting Director, BRAC Business School followed by the opening speech of M Nayeem Hossain, President, BSCC. In the seminar Aminur Rahman, Director, Supply Chain of Unilever BD, SM Khaled, Director, Supply Chain Management, British American Tobacco BD, Rakiibul Alam, Director, Supply Chain of Coats Bangladesh addressed.

They described the importance of supply chain management in business and how Supply Chain management can play a vital role in one's career and gave individual presentation to the students. The Guest of honour Vivek Sood, CEO of Grameen Phone, shared his outstanding views and answered to the questions of the students. The seminar was concluded with an ending speech by chief guest Prof Dr Md. Golam Samdani Fakir, Ex Pro-Vice Chancellor and Director of TLC, BRACU.