

Campus Corner

Wednesday, 20 February 2013

Author / Source: INDEPENDENT NEWS

8th convocation of BRAC University held

DHAKA, FEB 19: The 8th convocation of BRAC University was held on Tuesday at the Bangabandhu International Conference Centre (BICC), says a press release. Prof Dr Alauddin Ahmed, Adviser of Prime Minister of Education, Social Development and Political Affairs, was the chief guest while social activist and Bollywood actor Rahul Bose was the convocation speaker.

A total of 741 students from various academic disciplines joined the ranks of BRACU graduates. Prof Md Golam Samdani Fakir, Pro-Vice Chancellor, BRAC University, delivered welcome address. This was followed by the convocation speech delivered by actor Rahul Bose. Fazle Hasan Abed, in his speech as the special guest, expressed his hope that the BRAC University will continue to play its role in dispensing quality education in the country. He hoped that the graduates will carry forward the ideals of service to the society and the nation. He wished the graduating students all the best in their future endeavours. Professor Ainun Nishat, vice-chancellor, BRAC University in his speech described the progress of the university so far made and laid out the ambitious plan of the university. The function ended with the distribution of certificates and medals to the graduating students.