

Fazle Hasan Abed receives Leo Tolstoy award

Date: 03 Jun, 2014

BRAC founder and chairperson Sir Fazle Hasan Abed has been awarded the Leo Tolstoy International Gold Medal by the Russian Children Foundation on the occasion of International Children's Day, reports bdnews24.com.

He received the award from the organisation's leader Albert Likhanov at Moscow's historic Bolshoi Theatre after a gala concert for orphan and disadvantaged children and children with disability, the BRAC said Monday.

Every year, the Russian Children's Foundation awards this medal to an outstanding humanist, who has made a significant contribution to education and care of children.

BRAC founder and chairperson Sir Fazle Hasan Abed has been awarded the Leo Tolstoy International Gold Medal by the Russian Children Foundation on the occasion of International Children's Day, reports bdnews24.com.

He received the award from the organisation's leader Albert Likhanov at Moscow's historic Bolshoi Theatre after a gala concert for orphan and disadvantaged children and children with disability, the BRAC said Monday.

Every year, the Russian Children's Foundation awards this medal to an outstanding humanist, who has made a significant contribution to education and care of children.