

29 September 2014

Seminar on macroeconomic situation

Participants of a seminar titled 'Role of IMF and Recent Macroeconomic Situation in Bangladesh' pose for photo at BRAC University in the city on Sunday. sun photo

A seminar titled 'Role of IMF and Recent Macroeconomic Situation in Bangladesh' was held at BRAC University in the city on Sunday.

A three-member delegation from International Monetary Fund (IMF) comprising IMF Mission Chief Dr Rodrigo Cubero, President Representative of IMF in Bangladesh Stella Kaendra and Economist Analyst of IMF, Dhaka, Dilara Begum attended the seminar with former governor of Bangladesh Bank Dr Salehuddin Ahmed, also a professor of BRAC Business School, in the chair, says a press release.

Senior faculty members Dr Mirza Azizul Islam, Dr Hafiz GA Siddiqi, Professor Emeritus, and Associate Professor Mohammad Rezaur Razzak, among others, were also present.

Experts raised different issues like policy of the regulatory bodies, reforms of VAT and income tax, fiscal policy reforms etc at the interactive seminar, the release added.