

BRAC University club fair held

Tribune Report

BRAC University hold its daylong club fair for fall semester yesterday.

With participation of 37 clubs, the event titled “Oitijher Rong” (Colour of tradition), showcased activities of different clubs to the university’s freshmen and called them to join the clubs of their choices.

BRAC University Heritage Forum that promotes different heritage sites of Bangladesh and BRAC University

Art Society that organises different festivals featuring Bangladeshi art, organised the event. With a view to uphold Bangladeshi art and culture, the two clubs urged the students to take a close look of the beautiful local traditions that are on the verge of extinct in the country.

Pro-Vice Chancellor of the university Prof Fuad Hasan Mallick and Director of Career Services and Alumni Relations Office of the university Khan Ahmed Murshid were present. ♦