

Source: PRNEWSBD.COM

14-11-2014

Top US university official visits BRAC University

Mary-Ellen Madigan, Director of Enrollment Management, Pennsylvania State University had visited BRAC University on 13 November 2014, a press release said Friday.

The purpose of the visit was to develop bilateral relationship between the two universities.

The discussions focused on working out strategies for mutual benefits through exchange programs and resources sharing. Pennsylvania State University is one of the prominent universities of United States of America.

Syed Saad Andaleeb, Vice-chancellor of BRAC University chaired the session along with distinguished faculty members and administrative staffs.