

BRAC Univ's Business Week starts in Dhaka today

November 16, 2014

Staff Correspondent

A three-day Business Week, organised by BRAC University Business Club, starts in the capital today aiming to develop corporate skill of students.

The event will take place on the BRC University campus where a job fair and a seminar on youth employment will be held for the students in the first two days.

BRAC University Business Club will also launch the volume 5 of VISION, a business magazine, on the final day of the event which will be followed by a cultural show.