

Source: PRNNEWSBD.com

Jan 10 2015

BRAC University holds freshers' orientation program

The Undergraduate Orientation Program of Spring 2015 took place on January 10, 2015 at Mohakhali Campus of BRAC University (BRACU), a press release said Saturday. Vice Chancellor, Professor Syed Saad Andaleeb was the chief guest at the welcoming ceremony.

Professor Fuad Hassan Mallick, Pro-Vice Chancellor, Professor A.A. Zia Uddin Ahmad, Chairperson, Department of Mathematics and Natural Sciences (MNS), Lady Syeda Sarwat Abed, Director, BRAC Institute of Language, Professor Riaz Partha Khan, Dean of Student Affairs Office & Teaching Learning Centre and Professor Firdous Azim, Chairperson of English & Humanities spoke on the occasion.

Sukhendra Kumar Sarkar, Treasurer and Muhammad Sahool Afzal, Registrar of BRACU were present with the company of all Head of the Departments, Faculty Members and Administrative staff to welcome the enthusiastic fresh undergraduate students along with their parents who attended the session with excitements on their faces.

Professor Andaleeb emphasized on team work and cooperation in regular studies and drew attention upon BRAC University's holistic approach in educational development. Professor Fuad Hassan Mallick, encouraged and motivated the students to be better persons as the receivers of higher education. Lady Syeda Sarwat Abed spoke in details about 1st year curriculum and Residential Semester.

Ismat Shereen, Head of Relationship Management Office covered details about BRACU procedures & system, rules & regulations of BRACU. Lady Syeda Sarwat Abed spoke in details about 1st year curriculum and Residential Semester.

There was an interactive dialog session between the concerned personnel and the guardians for better understanding of BRAC University campus life and co-curricular activities which both of the bodies found effective.

The discussion session also included four video presentations covering important aspects of the university, Alumni Reflections, a glimpse of enriched BRAC University library and Residential Semester at Savar Campus.