

BRACU signs MoU with Ernst and Young

Eduvista Desk

Sunday, 14 June, 2015

BRAC University (BRACU) signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Ernst and Young (EY), an Indian company, to run "TOP UP IT Training" on behalf of the ICT Division, Ministry of Post, Telecommunications and Information Technology and Bangladesh Computer

Council (BCC) on June 7.

The agreement will ensure BRAC University students receive industry oriented training alongside the regular curriculum and also provide certification for the students, both from the government and from an internationally recognized software developer certification programme. Prof Syed Saad Andaleeb, Vice Chancellor of BRACU, and Kamal Mansharamani, Director of EY, and Md Rezaul Karim, ndc, Project Director, LICT,BCC, inked the deal at BRACU Vice Chancellor's conference room on behalf of their respective organisations, said a press release. Prof Haider Ali, Chairperson, Department of Computer Science and Engineering, and Major General (Retd) Muhammad Sahool Afzal, Registrar, BRACU were present on the occasion along with other faculty members and officials of the university, EY and BCC. - See more at: <http://www.observerbd.com/2015/06/14/94059.php#sthash.WtERy3gr.dpuf>