BRAC University (BRACU) organised the second musical program of its "Bangla Gaaner Bhabna O Pathchola" series on Wednesday. The program was held at the auditorium of BRACU's Mohakhali campus. This time, celebrating birthdays of Rabindranath Tagore and Kazi Nazrul Islam, the focus of the program was "Rabindra-Nazrul Jayanti".

Students rendered songs of Rabindranath Tagore and Kazi Nazrul Islam along with renowned Rabindra Sangeet exponent Fahim Hossain Chowdhury and Kazi Nazrul Islam's granddaughter Khilkhil Kazi.

Notable songs performed in the program were "Mayabono Biharini", "Tumi Robe Nirbobe", "Durgam Giri Kantar Moru", "Dur Dipbashini" etc. BRAC University Vice Chancellor Professor Dr Syed Saad Andaleeb Ph.D. was present.

This musical series aimed not only to please the auditory senses but also to know the history and context associated with each song and its creator. It also aimed to uphold the traditions of Bangla poems and music among students of today and remind them about the rich cultural heritage and legacy of Bangla songs.
