BRAC University (BRACU) celebrated the advent of spring along with underprivileged children on Tuesday.

In association with its Office of Co-curricular Activities (OCA), the private university organised the programme – Bosonto Utsab— at its Mohakhali Campus auditorium.

Pro-Vice Chancellor Ansar Ahmed inaugurated the event. Treasurer Shib Narayan Kairy, among others, was present, says a press release.

Puppet show, art competition, and cultural function were part of the festival to entertain the deprived children.

The organisers also provided the children with red t-shirt as well as refreshments.
