Three-day club fair ends at BRAC University

A three-day club fair jointly organised by the office of co-curricular activities and cultural club of BRAC University ended on its Mohakhali campus in the capital on Tuesday.

Organised every semester by the office of co-curricular activities, the theme of the fair this semester was 'Hymn of Fall', said a press release.

The fair was organised to introduce newly enrolled students about the various student organizations of the university that helped to cultivate leadership and team-building skills among students.

Twenty six student clubs took part in the fair comprising drama, movie, dance and musical shows and performances by underground bands and a food festival.

While inaugurating the event, university registrar Lieutenant Colonel (retd) Md Foyzul Islam said that club activities were a necessity for sound education and provided students with an opportunity to engage in social activities.

He earlier visited stalls set up by the clubs and talked about their activities and future plans.

Dilara Afroz Khan, assistant professor of BRAC business school and director of office of cocurricular activities, and other officials were present at the inauguration.
