

July 22, 2018

Y6 | NEWS

SUNDAY, JULY 22, 2018, SHRABAN 7, 1425 BS

NEWAGE Youth

On Tuesday, July 17, University of Dhaka chapter of Bangladesh Students' Union brought out a procession protesting at the recent attacks on students-teachers of DU during the quota reform movement.

On Thursday, July 12, Eastern University's Moot Court Society in collaboration with Strategy for Environmental Development Foundation, organised a three day long international environmental law moot court competition at their premises.

On Monday, July 11, Independent University Bangladesh organised a seminar titled 'Dream Big' at their Bashundhara, Dhaka campus.

On the 15th episode of the Battle of Mind competition organised by British American Tobacco the team 'Je Ne Sais Quoi' from IBA, DU won the championship this year.

On Thursday, July 19, the family members of Didarul Islam Chanchal, a young theatre and cultural activist, demanded justice for his unsolved murder on his 6th death anniversary at Narayanganj Press Club.

On Wednesday, July 18, BRAC University arranged a public lecture on democracy and development at BRAC Centre Inn Dhaka.