

Campus corner

Monday, 16 April 2012 Author / Source : INDEPENDENT NEWS

Seminar on career planning held at BRACU

DHAKA, APR 15: BRAC University (BRACU) Career Services Office (CSO) organised a seminar on career planning 'Meet the Employers' at Savar Residential Campus (TARC) recently, says a press release.

The seminar was a semi-formal session where the leaders of various job sectors met 323 BRACU 2nd semester students and answered different career related queries. The session intended to provide some essential guidelines to the students for their future career, and take necessary preparations in this regard.

The corporate personnel's were Tanzim Samad Choudhury (BRACU Alumni), senior executive of Save the Children, Waleed Morshed, chief executive officer, NGGL GROUP LIMITED, Dean Sam Yu Sum, Supply Chain Manager, GILDEN, Syed Ghulam Moinuddin, Supervisor EH&S HRAD, GILDEN, Quazi Mortuza Ali, First Vice President & Head of Alternative Delivery Channel, Bank Asia, Mahbub Alam, Head of Learning & Development Human Resources Division, Brac Bank, Muntasir Mynuddin, assistant manager, Employee Relations & Talent Management Group HR, VIYELLATEX Group.

Kazi Shahnoor Kabir, executive career services office, opened the session and Asma Banu, Senior Assistant Director of Career Services Office delivered the welcome speech and explained the role of career services office. Md Mahfuzul Bari Chowdhury, the Campus Superintendent, and faculties of Savar campus also attended the programme.