

DHAKA Friday 27 July 2012, 12 Sraban 1419, BS 07 Ramadan 1433 HIJRI

Robotics team from BRAC attends NASA's mining contest

Robi sponsors ChondroBot -2

→ Business Desk

"ChondroBot -2" a robotics team from the School of Engineering and Computer Science of BRAC University, Bangladesh received the Asia's Best title in the recently held NASA's third "Annual Lunabotics Mining Competition (LMC)" in USA.

Mobile Phone operator Robi Axiata Limited was the sponsor of ChondroBot lunar excavation device of this tour to NASA Kennedy Space Center, Florida, USA. The prestigious event took place from May 21 - 26, this year in Florida, USA, according to a message received here Thursday.

Prof Ainun Nishat, Vice Chancellor of BRAC University, Mohiuddin Babar, Vice President (Communications and Media Relations), Gazi Emran Al-Amin, General Manager, Brand and Market Communication, were present along with students and directors of the university as well as Chairpersons of different departments to welcome the team Thursday at the Indoor games hall of Brac University.