

The Daily Star

October 02, 2014

Seminar on 'International Day for Peace' at BRAC University

UNESCO Club of BRAC University organised a seminar on 'International Day for Peace' on its premises on September 29. Kiichi Oyasu, Program and Education specialist, UNESCO Bangladesh was the chief guest while Dr. Piash Karim, Professor, Department of Economics and Social Sciences and Khan Ahmed Murshid, Director, Career Services Office, BRAC University spoke at the event.

The speakers talked about constraints of sustainable peace and voiced the fundamental prerequisites to ensure it by giving respect to others' rights, diversity and values. They also inspired the youth as global citizens to build a better world where people can live in harmony and stability.

Meheri Tamanna, Lecturer and also the advisor of the club coordinated the program. Faculty, administration staff and students were present during the event.