

15 Dec, 2014

Workshop on 'Parenting for Student Success' held

The student affairs office of BRAC University hosted a workshop on 'Parenting for Student Success and Wellbeing' at the university's auditorium Saturday. Organised jointly by the first-year advising team (FYAT), Counselling Unit, and Teaching and Learning Centre (TLC), the interactive sessions were designed to explore the challenges and support for both students and parents at BRAC University. — Press release