Seminar on A Retrospective on FY'17 Budget

BRAC University's Business School organized a seminar titled “A Retrospective on FY’17 Budget”. The keynote speaker of the event was Dr A B Mirza Azizul Islam, former Advisor to the Caretaker Government, Ministries of Finance and Planning (2007-2008). Dr Islam is presently a Visiting Professor in BRAC University.

Dr Salehuddin Ahmed, Former Governor of Bangladesh Bank and Professor at BRAC Business School was the special guest at the seminar. The welcome address was given by Mohammad Rezaur Razzak, Head of Operations, BRAC Business School.

Dr Islam addressed the faculty members and students on his keynote speech, and provided his insights on this year’s budget. He cited the experience following last fiscal budget and said the revised budget is substantially lower than the original one. Dr Salehuddin was critical about the development budget. He made retrospective analysis and emphasised that the quality of ADP (Annual Development Program) is not up to the mark.

Professor Rahim B Talukdar, Advisor, BRAC Business School shared contemplation on the upcoming budget and concluded the program by a vote of thanks.
