

03.05.2010

Rikkyo University team call on BRAC University VC

DHAKA, Bangladesh, May 2 (BSS)- A three-member delegation of Rikkyo University, Japan, made a call-on BRAC University Vice-Chancellor Professor Ainun Nishat at his office here today, says a press release.

The delegation led by Dr Kiyoshi Kasahara discussed about introduction of a joint programme on "Tourism and Hospitality" at BRAC University.

Dr. Kiyoshi Kasahara informed that the 135 year-old Rikkyo University is now offering undergraduate, postgraduate and PhD degrees on 'Tourism and Hospitality', one of the most potential programmes.

Dr. Ainun Nishat expressed his eagerness to introduce a programme on Tourism and Hospitality at BRAC University.

He said Bangladesh is a potential and important place for tourism industry as it is blessed with ample natural and archeological sites, which easily attract visitors.

BRAC University Pro-vice Chancellor Professor Golam Samdani Fakir, Registrar Ishfaq Ilahi Choudhury, Professor Yokio Toyoda and Professor Naseer Uddin Jamadar of Rikkyo University, among others, were present.