BRAC Univ bids farewell to Jamilur Reza Chy

Bangladesh Sangbad Sangstha . Dhaka

The BRAC University bade farewell to its first vice-chancellor Professor Jamilur Reza Choudhury at a function at the university auditorium on Monday.

The pro-vice-chancellor of the university, Professor Md. Golam Samdani Fakir, governing body members Professor Anisuzzaman, Faruq Ahmed Choudhury and Professor Ainun Nishat, among others, addressed the function.

Fakir said Jamilur Reza Choudhury has turned the BRAC University into one of the few leading private universities in the country by virtue of his dynamic leadership, guidance, well strategic plan and innovative knowledge.

Jamilur expressed his gratitude to the authorities for their cooperation in discharging his duties at the university.

Chairpersons of different departments, faculty members, staff and present and former students of the university attended the function.

Jamilur joined the BRAC University as its first vice-chancellor on March 1, 2001.
