‘Rohingyas to be relocated to habitable places’

Says Foreign Secretary Md Shahidul Haque

Star Online Report

Foreign Secretary Md Shahidul Haque today said that Rohingya refugees will be relocated to new places after ensuring that the areas are habitable.

Rohingya refugees will be relocated to the places which are viable, he said.

The foreign secretary was addressing a programme as the chief guest on the first day of a two-day international conference on ‘Rohingya Refugee Crisis: Towards Sustainable Solutions’.

Bangladesh is a positive state and a very transparent country, he said adding, “We will manage helicopters to go and visit the places where they (Rohingyas) will be relocated”.

The conference on Rohingya refugee crisis began at Nawab Ali Chowdhury Senate Bhaban of Dhaka University around 10:00am.
