

BRACU holds filmmaking workshop

June 04, 2018 00:00:00

Members of the BRAC University Film Club posing for photograph at a workshop on filmmaking on the university's campus in the city recently

BRAC University Film Club organised a workshop on filmmaking to encourage the students on its campus in the city recently, says a statement.

Jalshaghar, Charulata and Aranyer Din Ratri created by Satyajit Ray were screened during the workshop.

Promising filmmaker Amitabh Reza Chowudhury visited the festival.

Participants discussed software, editing tools, cinematography, props, sequence, master shot regarding films.