

Campus corner

Tuesday, 23 August 2011 Author / Source: INDEPENDENT NEWS/AGENCY

Project presentation held

DHAKA, AUG 22: Centre for Languages (CfL) of BRAC University organised Design for Change (DfC) project presentation at university indoor games room on Thursday, says a press release.

Design for Change (DfC) is a global movement designed to give children an opportunity to express their own ideas for a better world and put them into action. The Bangladesh chapter of this global movement of social change is unique in the sense that for the first time it is being implemented with university students. Prof Ainun Nishat, Vice Chancellor of BRAC University was present as the chief guest. The programme started with a welcome speech by Syeda Sarwat Abed, director, Centre for Languages (CfL) of BRAC University. Then the students presented their projects. The problem based projects that the students presented were— ‘Cleaning the surrounding area of BRAC University’, ‘Attitude towards weaker students’, ‘Emotional problems of university students’, ‘Raising awareness among the BRAC University students on the effects of smoking’, ‘Raising awareness among the pedestrians to use foot over bridge’. Prof Dr Md Golam Samdani Fakir, Pro Vice Chancellor of BRAC University and Anjana Anand, social development and communication expert and also the main facilitator of DfC in Bangladesh were present in the programme.