

Pharmacy Department of BRACU Opens Advanced Research Lab

Pharmacy department of BRAC University started their advanced pharmacy research lab at 18th floor, university building in May 9, 2012. Professor Ainun Nishat, Vice Chancellor, BRACU inaugurated this research lab.

Pharmacy department, BRACU started its journey from May 02, 2010 with four enthusiastic faculty members and seven students. Right now, there are around 100 students pursuing their undergraduate program.

Pharmacy is a professional subject and keeping this in mind department always striving to establish more labs with modern facilities. After inauguration, Professor Ashik Mosaddik, Chairperson pharmacy department expressed that this advanced research lab not only serves the routine practical facilities but also faculties now can start advanced research in natural product chemistry, pharmacology, microbiology and cancer biology.

He also point out that from now Pharmacy department is able to provides sufficient lab facilities for all existing and upcoming students. Professor A.A.Zia Uddin, Chairperson, Mathematics and Natural Science and all faculty members of pharmacy department were also present this occasion. The vice chancellor Prof. Ainun Nishat stressed on the faculty members to enhance the collaborative research utilizing the sophisticated equipment of this newly opened advanced lab and other facility of BRACU. He also mentioned that the authority is planning to establish a separate premise for pharmacy department so that Pharmacy department can open a new window for higher research.