

Wednesday, 18 July 2012

Author / Source: INDEPENDENT NEWS

Seminar on Career Prospects in Banking held

DHAKA, JULY 17: BRAC University MBA Forum organised a seminar on 'Career Prospects in Banking' at the auditorium of BRAC University on Saturday, says a press release.

The opening ceremony was presided over by Rezaur Razzak, Coordinator of MBA Programme at BRAC Business School. In order to have a clear idea on the career prospects in banking, distinguished human resource professionals from different banks were present at seminar. Among others, Alkona K Chowdhury, Sr Executive Vice President and head of HR, IFIC Bank Ltd, Md Iftekhar Hossain, head of HR, Prime Bank Ltd, Mujib Siddiqui, head of HR, Dhaka Bank Ltd, Abdullah Harun Imam, head of recruitment, BRAC Bank Ltd, were present on this occasion.

The panelists shared various aspects in the areas of recruitment, development, employee motivation, performance appraisal processes in banking environment and some of the latest developments like green banking, role of technology etc. Moreover, they discussed the qualities and competencies they look into among the applicants while recruiting the best people from the market. The panel discussion was moderated by Professor Mamun Rashid, Director at BRAC Business School. A large number of students and faculties from MBA, EMBA, BBA and other departments of BRAC University were present in the seminar.