

NEWAGE Youth

TLC of BRAC University hosts 17th faculty orientation

September 20, 2015

As a part of the committed endeavor towards the promotion and enhancement of excellence in teaching and learning, the Teaching and Learning Centre (TLC) of BRAC University organised 17th Faculty Orientation Programme on September 10 at BRAC University's Mohakhali campus with 33 newly appointed faculty members. The programme commenced with opening remarks of Dr Seuty Sabur, director (In-charge), TLC who talked about the academic culture and curriculum at BRAC University. It was followed by a session facilitated by Professor Syed Saad Andaleeb, vice chancellor where he enlightened the new faculty members on the missions of BRAC University and also talked about his expectations from them.

After that Associate Professor Mohammad Rezaur Razzak, acting head of BRAC Business School facilitated a session on Teacher-Student Interaction. The proceeding of the programme was carried on Beth Trudell, the English Language Consultant, BRAC Institute of Languages who conducted a session on Critical Thinking Made Easy. Moreover, Shadia Alam and Mahfuzur Rahman of human resource department provided an overview of HR and administrative policies.

The VC also inaugurated the 'Pedagogy Portal', a web-based platform conspiring of teaching resources and discussion forum for faculty members, which will be persistently developed by TLC during the current semester. |

– Youth Desk