The 'BRAC University Faculty and Staff Awards' was arranged at BRAC Centre at Gulshan in Dhaka on 10 November. The recipients of 2015 awards in three different categories are Assistant Professor Dr Hasibun Naher of the Department of Mathematics and Natural Sciences (best researcher), Senior Lecturer Zara Sheikh of the Department of Pharmacy (best teacher) and Librarian Hasina Afroz (best staff). Chairperson of Board of Trustees of BRAC University (BRACU) Sir Fazle Hasan Abed was present at the programme as chief guest. Vice Chancellor of BRAC University Professor Syed Saad Andaleeb and other key personnel from the Board of Trustees, Syndicate and Academic Council were also present. Sir Abed praised the BRAC University initiative for the professional development of teachers, its liberal education program which builds additional abilities like analytical ability, critical thinking, communications skill, digital awareness, broader understanding of society and abilities to operate in society. Professor Andaleeb said BRAC University comprises high quality teachers, researches and non-academic staff who are competing to become the best and the award program was a reflection of that.
